MEXICO SUFFERS BY RAGING FLOODS

One Whole Town Washed Away and Serious Damage to Railroads and Other Property.

Special to the Eagle.

El Paso, Texas, July 6.—Rains continue in Mexico and the flood situation grows more serious hourly.

Every main line leading into the Mexican capital is washed out and communication is completely broken. Repairs are difficult on account of the continuous downpour.

Aside from the complete destruction of the town of La Paz, in San Luis Potosi, where several lives were lost, many other towns have suffered, and news comes from the mountain districts that the loss of life will be heavy and property damage enormous in the mining camps.

The entire Leguna cotton district, south of El Paso on the Mexican Central, is inundated and the loss is great. Until the rains came the Nazas river was so low that crops suffered from lack of water, but now the river is washing them out.

RIGID STEPS TO CHECK CHARBON

State Sanitary Board is Considering the Situation.

Special to the Eagle.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 6.—Drastic measures to prevent the further spread of anthrax or charbon, which is carrying off men and cattle in East Texas and Southwestern Louisiana, are planned by the state sanitary board which is in session in Fort Worth.

R. H. Harris of San Angelo, chairman and secretary of the commission, recommends the establishment of the quarantine lines and the enforcement of rigid quarantine. The tick question also came up for discussion, but no new changes in the quarantine lines are contemplated.

TEXAS BAR ASSOCIATION.

Lawyers and Judges from all Parts of State Meet at Austin For Annual Session.

Special to the Eagle.

Austin, Texas, July 6.—Leading attorneys of Texas, together with several noted lawyers and jurists from other states have gathered in Austin for what promises to be the most successful meeting in the history of the Texas Bar Association. It is the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the association, and the sessions will continue three days.

The officers in charge of the meeting are President Yancey Lewis of Dallas, Vice President William H. Burgess of El Paso, Secretary L. Q. C. Lamar of Dallas, and Treasurer W. D. Williams of Fort Worth.

William C. Pitts former Attorney-General of Alabama, is slated to deliver the annual address before the association. Other speakers and their topics are: Judge R. B. Levy of Texarkana, "Critical Laws of an Early Period;" Judge N. W. Finley of Dallas, "The Profession of Law as Distinguished from the Business of the Law;" and Judge S. P. Jones of Marshall, "Civil Suits Should be More Speedily Disposed of."

The Eagle is requested to announce a regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge tonight at 8:30 o'clock. New officers are to be installed and a full attendance of the members is desired.

KILLED AT HUM- BLE OIL FIELD

H. J. Maze, Oil Field Worker, Horribly Mangled.

Special to the Eagle.

Humble, Texas, July 6.—H. J. Maze an oil field workman, was horribly mangled here yesterday afternoon at about 2 o'clock, dying within ten minutes. He was at work on Sun company No. 26, handling the engine and pulling a piece of timber up in the derrick when his hand was caught in the catline. The cathead was revolving with great rapidity at the time and Maze was drawn around it and wrapped with the line. His body, arms and legs were horribly crushed and mangled.

A helper named Foy was the only man in sight and he was up in the derrick. He hastened to the floor of the derrick as quickly as possible and stopped the engine and Maze was extricated, but it was too late to save his life.

Maze had resided in Humble for four years, coming here early during the oil field developments. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and was a Knight of Pythias. He was 31 years old and unmarried. His mother and brother reside in Elsworth, Kan. The remains are being held, awaiting advices from Elsworth.

BIG FIRE IN HOUSTON

Four Story Building and the Stocks of Occupants Destroyed.

Special to the Eagle.

Houston, Texas, July 6th, 1909.—Houston had a destructive fire at one o'clock this morning in which the Bender building, a four story structure was burned as well as the stocks of the various firms that occupied the building. Among the losses was the Houston Labor Journal and McCurdy's job printing plant. A large furniture store, an electric supply store, a plumbing shop, and several other business firms. The loss is estimated at $120,000.

SEALED BIDS.

Sealed bids will be received up to 4 o'clock July 16th, for the privilege of conducting a stand for the sale of refreshments, lunches, cigars, soft drinks, ice cream, etc., at the A. and M. college during the Farmers Congress, July 27, 28, 29, 30, 1909. No intoxicating drinks will be allowed.

HYMAN LEVY OF HOUSTON KILLED.

Was Speeding in Fast Auto When Wreck Occurred that Caused His Death.

Special to the Eagle.

Houston, Texas, July 6.—31: Hyman Levy, one of the leading business men of Houston, secretary and treasurer of the Levy Brothers Dry Goods Company and vice-president of the Union Bank and Trust company, was killed in an automobile accident last night about 9 o'clock on the La Porte road about eight miles from town. In the car with Mr. Levy, who was driving, were Mr. Milby Porter, young Morris Goldman and Mr. Benjamin H. Brown. None of the others were seriously injured, although all were badly shaken up. It was reported that Mr. Porter had sustained a broken leg, but this report was found to be incorrect. The accident happened a short distance south of the bridge over Sims Bayou. Mr. Levy attempted to pass another car and ran his machine into the concrete coping beside the road wrecking the car and throwing him against the steering wheel with such force that it caused his death. He was carried back to Houston at once but was dead when his home was reached.

HOW A NOTED TEXAN IS BEHAV- ING IN VIRGINIA.

The Williamsburg Gazette, which enjoys the distinction of being the first paper to publish the Declaration of Independence, and which was established in 1736, publishes the following account of Dr. W. C. James' annual sermon before the college of William and Mary:

"The closing exercises of the 216th session of William and Mary college began last Sunday morning with the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. W. C. James, pastor of Grove Avenue Baptist Church, Richmond. The chapel was a dense mass of humanity when the speaker, accompanied by the faculty and seniors, in hood and gown, and wearing the colors of their respective colleges, entered the chapel, presenting a very imposing scene. On the rostrum, besides those mentioned, were the several ministers of the city. Rev. H. T. Louthan presided. The address by Dr. James was replete in oratorical effect, and was pronounced by many the most able and eloquent baccalaureate sermon ever delivered here."

—Religious Herald.

Dr. James is an old Bryan boy and a son of Prof. James who many years ago taught in this city. He has many friends and schoolmates here who rejoice at the marked success he is achieving in the ministry.

CHILD SCALDED TO DEATH.

A most distressing accident occurred in the Harvey community yesterday afternoon that resulted in the death of little Howard Jones the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones. The little fellow in some way turned over a vessel of boiling water upon himself and was terribly scalded. His suffering was intense until death came as a blessed relief at 4 o'clock this morning. He was laid lovingly and tenderly to rest at Sleep Hollow cemetery this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Jones have the profound sympathy of all their neighbors and friends in their sad bereavement.

THE PRICE OF A DOG.

Marlin has undoubtedly established a record breaking price for one piece of animated and jointed canine flesh, Earl C. Smith having today closed a deal for one imported English bull dog, of the pure white variety, for which he received in cold hard cash $500. The purchaser of the $500 thoroughbred was B. C. Watson of Burton, Texas, who like Mr. Smith has a mania for full blooded bull dogs.—Marlin Democrat. Under the Mosaic law the dog was an unclean beast and the Bible says the price of a dog is an abomination to the Lord. Yet there are some dogs whose value cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, to a master capable of appreciating their noble qualities. Somehow it don't seem right to sell a dog for money.
